

3rd International Workshop for
Regulation of Animal Biotechnology

Organizing committee

- Eric Hallerman – Virginia Tech University, USA
- Bill Hallman – Rutgers University, USA
- Hellen Mbaya Kajuju – National Biosafety Authority, Kenya
- Yanina Petracca – Ministry of Agroindustry, Argentina
- S.R. Rao – Ministry of Science & Technology, India
- Mark Walton – Mark Walton Enterprises, LLC, USA
- Bruce Whitelaw – Roslin Institute, UK
- Diane Wray- Cahen - U.S. Dept. of Agriculture – Foreign Agriculture Service

Thanks to our sponsors

Goals of the workshop

- To advance science-based regulations and decision-making processes and to increase the potential for harmonized regulations for animal biotechnologies globally.
- To strengthen the capacity of countries, especially in the developing world, to create regulations that will enable safe products of animal biotechnology to reach the market and have the opportunity to be used to help address challenges faced in animal agriculture globally.